Extra-Curricular Middle School Activities

School Activities

National Junior Honor Society candidates must have actively participated in AT LEAST (2) different clubs, and/or sports teams prior to eighth grade. Band, Orchestra, and Chorus DO NOT satisfy this requirement. Jazz Band, Marching Band, and Select Chorus DO. If the coach is not a member of the staff at your school, please have your physical education teacher sign. If you need additional space, please attach a separate piece of paper.

Service Activities

National Junior Honor Society candidates must be able to document (10) hours of voluntary service to school and/or community from the fall of sixth grade through the fall of eighth grade. These hours must be documented by a written acknowledgement and signature from the individual or organization receiving the service. Peer tutoring, library aide, guides at open school night are examples of school service. Scouting and confirmation projects as well as participation in Church or Temple groups, hospital volunteer, walk-a-thons, etc. are community related. All outside school community service hours MUST be documented on formal letterhead typed and signed by an officer of the organization.

Disciplinary Referrals

If you have had any disciplinary referrals during your middle school years, it may prevent you from being inducted into the National Junior Honor Society.

Have you ever received ISS or OSS? Please circle one: YES NO

If yes, please type your answers to the following questions and submit with this form:

- 1. Describe the incident.
- 2. What did you learn from the incident?
- 3. What could you have done differently?
- 4. What characteristics do you have that demonstrate good character?
- 5. Why should you be considered for NJHS?

A team of teachers will review your folder and your qualities of leadership, character, scholarship, citizenship, and service to determine if you should or should not be inducted into the National Junior Honor Society.

*You may meet all the requirements on paper, but that does not guarantee acceptance into NJHS.
